Issue No.6
Volume No. 27
June 26, 2009

Theresa Kukawka • 8024 M. Channel Dr. • (810) 748-9528 - harsensislandflyer@gmail.com

This weekend begins with the infamous "Jobbie Nooner" gathering on Gull Island. Hundreds of watercraft gather for what has been nick-named Michigan's Mardi Gras. Island business' brace them- selves because "you never know" how the day will unfold. Police and EMS hover nearby to make sure there aren't any drug related problems. On Saturday, the Old Farts go to clean up and collect returnables! In the process, they find cell phones, watches and sometimes hung over bodies still hanging around.

This Sunday is the "ad deadline" for the 4th of July Holiday Edition of the FLYER. It's hard to believe we've reached our half way point in the FLYER season, especially since our warm weather just started. All ads MUST be submitted by 5pm, this Sun. June 28th, at Sans Souci Market.

I wanted to "feature" an Island Business each week...
This week, I am highlighting the "new":

The WATERFRONT SHOPPE

Downtown SansSouci has a handful of businesses that have stood the test of time. The Waterfront Shoppe is one of them! This unique waterfront gift shop first opened its doors way back in 1974, under the ownership of Kay VanHees. In 1982, in an effort to stir up more business for her store and other island businesses, it was Kay who started this Harsens Island Flyer. After 18 years of ordering, selling and marketing, Kay sold the business to George & Barbara Crown. The Crowns brought their own artistic style, talent and taste to the shop. Some things changed, like the addition of George's art studio. Many things remained the same throughout the Waterfront Shoppe's 35 years of operation, most notably, the candy corner! "It's fun to see parents bring in their young children and explain how they use to buy candy here when they were little" said Barbara. She went on to add that the t-shirt, sweatshirt, unique gift offerings & card selection have remained a staple of the business.

For the past six years, the Shoppe was leased/managed by Sandy O'Conner, under the name Riverfront Shoppe. During that time period, the Crowns & Gagnons devoted their resources to Sans Souci Landing. Now, in 2009, things have come full circle. The Crowns are back "home" and the island is blessed to have The Waterfront Shoppe back in town. George's studio is set-up in the area that was originally built from an old garage. Since 1994, when he first inhabited that space, George's artwork has evolved and expanded to include portraits. Over the years, he has produced hundreds of paintings, many of which are available as prints or cards. He also has an uncanny knack for selecting just the right matt/frame for any art you bring in from home.

"During these hard economic times, when customers and retailers alike, are watching every dollar, we have selectively downsized the clothing. Women can still choose from a large selection of "resort clothing" that consists of brightly colored tops and matching bottoms, and cute summer dresses" Barbara noted.

The Crowns wisely use their $ and expertise to purchase a wide variety of items, but due to the short sales season, they do not do much re-ordering. This translates into If you see something you like BUY IT because it might not be there when you come back later. George is always changing the displays and utilizing every nook and cranny. This makes each visit to the Waterfront Shoppe a new adventure in shopping.

Be sure to stop in and browse the merchandise and fill up your own bag of penny candy! While you're there, say hello to George & Barb (Crown... not Bush!), Pam Seidel, Jenny Laethem and island newcomer, Michelle Baumgart.

JOBBIE NOONER TRIVIA

"Jobbies were an exclusive group in the automotive industry. We could go from job to job and we would always know someone. When times were good, a person could jump from one job to another every six month's for a few more dollars an hour. We bought big houses, had big boats, drove fast cars and enjoyed big bi-annual boat parties on Lake Saint Clair called "Jobbie Nooners". A "nooner" was a common practice back then. Pulling a nooner meant you were not going to come back from lunch. Try doing that at will on a job today!!!" Croaker. This "tradition" started years ago... and has continued every 3rd Friday in June on Gull Island.

Reader's Cove Library

Summer Hours:

Mon. 10-1, Wed. 10-4, Fri. 1-4, Sat. 10-1

Phone: 748-3134

WIRELESS INTERNET AVAILABLE

We would like to take this opportunity to recognize some very special people. These extraordinary citizens keep your library in top-notch condition. Just recently, Bill Donaldson, George Crown, Jeannie and Norm Rhodes, Michele Komar, Debbie DeMunnich, Chuck Miller, Gerry Victory, David Bryson and Jackie Warner have stepped up to the plate. Speaking of volunteers, we have 20 awesome folks working at the library each week.

Throng of people attended the Bodacious Book Sale. (Not thongs) tee hee. Books will continue to be on sale at the Library for a few weeks. Homemade refreshments were delicious, thanks to all who came and the ever faithful volunteers.

Both children's reading programs are under way and we are looking forward to a successful summer of reading.

Reminder, the wonderful trip to Hilberry theatre is July 8th to see "Alice in Wonderland". Sign up sheets for children and parent chaperones are at the Reader's Cove. Bus ride, tickets, and ice cream are free.

☐ Children's Reading Hour every Wednesday, at 11:00 am

☐ Michele Komar's Book signing of "The Life and Times Of Minnie Harm" on Saturday, July 18th at 11:00 am.

The Cove would like to establish a permanent home for all Delta News magazines. We still need the early editions, from 1940 to 1964. If you have any and would like to donate, please bring them by.
